Villa Segunda, Pensacola Beach, FL

This family, kid friendly beach home features a nice pool with large area for lounging and option to heat the pool. The charm and character this home possesses is seldom found on Pensacola Beach. So much thought was put into the details that you would never guess it wasn't a new custom build. The home has a spectacular views of the gulf and is just a short walk to the beach. On the right side of the house is a closed off path that leads directly to the gulf. The beautiful pool area under the house offers the option of spending the day at the beach or just hanging in the backyard and enjoying the pool. The shaded space is perfect for staying cool while watching the kids swim. This area also has a convenient pool bath with a shower. No climbing the stairs with little ones for the bathroom!! There is a gas grill for cooking poolside.

Built in 1978
